

Richmond American Debuts 4 Model Homes From Bothell To Lacey

PR Newswire
SEATTLE

SEATTLE, June 14, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Richmond American Homes of Washington, Inc., a subsidiary of M.D.C. Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: MDC), is pleased to debut four model homes at three exceptional new communities from Bothell to Lacey. The models provide homebuyers with examples of the builder's craftsmanship, structural options and available finishes and fixtures.

Agents and prospective buyers in Lacey are invited to attend the grand opening of the Dillon model home at Campus Fairways on Saturday, July 9. This exquisite golf course community boasts inspired floor plans with up to six bedrooms and approximately 3,300 square feet, from the mid $400,000s. The Dillon plan features four to six bedrooms, a private study, a 3-car garage and approximately 3,100 square feet. Daniel and Delaney ranch plans and the two-story Desiree plan, which has a convenient main-floor master suite, are coming soon, and golf course homesites are available.

Two new model homes are scheduled to grand open at Sunrise at Mill Valley in Bothell on July 23. Priced from the mid $500,000s, this inviting new community features contemporary two-story floor plans with up to six bedrooms and approximately 3,650 square feet. The Lander model home has three to five bedrooms and approximately 2,350 square feet, and the Lennon includes three to six bedrooms and approximately 2,750 square feet. Optional daylight basements are available.

Richmond American's two-story Hemingway model grand opened at Maple Hills in Covington on Saturday, June 4. Agents and buyers alike were excited to tour one of the builder's most popular floor plans. The six available plans at Maple Hills offer up to seven bedrooms and approximately 4,950 square feet, from the low $500,000s. Buyers will appreciate spacious homesites and exciting personalization options, including daylight basements. The Hemingway plan boasts four bedrooms and approximately 2,700 square feet, but jumps in size to approximately 4,000 square feet with the optional daylight basement.

With nearly 40 years of industry experience, the Richmond American Homes companies pride themselves on offering more standard features than many other homebuilders. The homes at Maple Hills, Campus Fairways and Sunrise at Mill Valley, where the new models are located, are no exception. They include gourmet kitchens with stainless-steel appliances, engineered hardwood flooring and fully fenced yards with landscaping.
