DENVER, Nov. 16, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Richmond American Homes of Colorado, Inc., a subsidiary of M.D.C. Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: MDC), invites prospective homebuyers to attend its Four-model Grand Opening at Seasons at Traditions in Aurora, now through November 20, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The inspired Seasons Collection features open, inviting floor plans at a price point that appeals to a wide range of homebuyers, who can also take advantage of exciting Grand Opening specials during this timeframe.

The Seasons Collection was designed to provide homebuyers with the ability to personalize their new living spaces to suit their needs at a price they can afford—regardless of their season in life. Seasons at Traditions offers four distinctive single- and two-story floor plans with up to four bedrooms and approximately 1,950 square feet, from the upper $200s. Although Seasons Collection homes are available at select locations across Colorado, this is the first time the impressive Amethyst, Onyx, Coral and Citrine homes will be modeled in the Denver metro area.

The Four-model Grand Opening event is a wonderful opportunity for buyers to tour the homes, speak with sales associates and learn everything this remarkable master-planned community has to offer, including a clubhouse with pool and close proximity to local schools, parks and trails.

Seasons at Traditions is located at 25126 E. 1st Avenue in Aurora. For more information about the Grand Opening event or the community, or to learn about other neighborhoods, special events and offers in your area, call 303.850.5750 or visit RichmondAmerican.com.
