More about Richmond American Homes

Richmond American Homes is known for its inspired floor plans, quality construction and unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction. However, personalization is what truly distinguishes Richmond American from other leading national homebuilders.

Everyone who builds a brand-new Richmond American home from the ground up will have the opportunity to meet with a professional design consultant to choose colors, textures, finishes and fixtures for their new living spaces. This complimentary design consultation (RichmondAmerican.com/HomeDesignTennessee) takes place at the builder's Home Gallery™, a boutique-style showroom where buyers can select even the smallest details, like doorknobs and drawer pulls, to help ensure that their new home is anything but cookie-cutter.

"We're thrilled to enter the Nashville housing market. Richmond American's key difference is in the wide range of ways buyers can personalize their homes to fit their own personal style. That's something we know Nashville house hunters will appreciate and we're excited to give them that opportunity," said Mike Zakrzewski, Executive Vice President of Operations for Tennessee.
